

Row On

Words written in the log book of The Three Brothers, a whaling ship from Nantucket working in the North Atlantic in 1846;
Found by Gail Huntington & printed in 'Songs the Whalemens Sang', 1964

Tune: Tim Laycock, arr. P. Stone

High

Dark clouds are on the summer sky, There's thunder in the wind. Row

Tune

Dark clouds are on the summer sky, There's thunder in the wind. Row

Low

Dark clouds are on the summer sky, There's thunder in the wind. Row

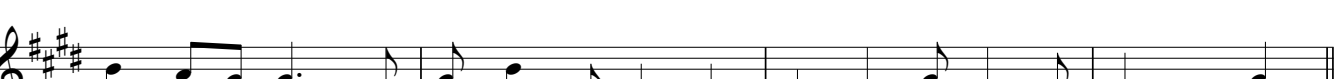

5

H

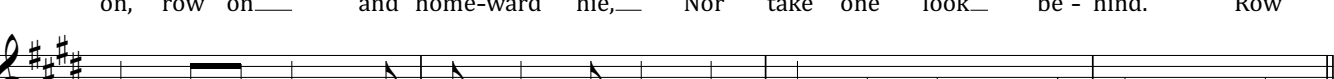

on, row on and home-ward hie, Nor take one look be-hind. Row

T

on, row on and home-ward hie, Nor take one look be-hind. Row

L

on, row on and home-ward hie, Nor take one look be-hind. Row

9

H

on row on, a - no - ther day May shine with bright - er light. Ply, on row on, a - no - ther day May shine with bright - er light. Ply, on row on, a - no - ther day May shine with bright - er light. Ply, ply the oars and pull a - way, There's dawn be - yond the night.

T

L

13

H

T

ply the oars and pull a - way, There's dawn be - yond the night.

L

ply the oars and pull a - way, There's dawn be - yond the night.